FRederic Laloux's Reinventing Organizations is an in depth survey into the evolution of organisational theory. He describes how organisations have evolved,over time, from the street gang, mafia type, impulsive, organisations, which he refers to as Red organisations, through conformist organisations, with strong rules, structure and a rigid hierarchy, which he calls Amber; then on to Orange, green and finally teal.

Reinventing Organizations Quotes. "Einstein once famously said that problems couldn't be solved with the same level of consciousness that created them in the first place." — Frederic Laloux , Reinventing Organizations: A Guide to Creating Organizations Inspired by the Next Stage of Human Consciousness.

Reinventing organizations is one of those "this makes so much sense" books. The highlights for me are: looking at employees as whole humans who bring their lives to work, rather than a mask; investing heavily in conflict management (to enable and channel conflict rather than hide from it) and letting organizational projects and initiatives grow or die by the energy and interest of staff rather than top-down authority.
